

Drive for Food Started On Henry Aldrich Show

Henry Aldrich fumbles a few important details but he gets the town off to a flying start on the Food Emergency drive, during "The Aldrich Family" comedy broadcast at 7 p. m. Friday over CBS.

A school dance to raise funds for the drive stems from Henry's suggestions, but when his father sponsors a businessmen's get-together for the same cause, much confusion arises as to where the two events should be held.

Peggy Lee, blonde and lovely, makes her second appearance as a singing guest with Tommy Riggs and "Betty Lou" at 6:30 p. m. Friday over CBS.

That "sentimental gentleman of swing," Bandleader Tommy Dorsey, will introduce a new series of musical variety programs, spotlighting the forgotten man of music, the arranger, when "Tommy Dorsey's Playshop" makes its debut at 9 p. m. Friday over MBS.

Alan Young, donning water wings for an aquatic romp with Esther Williams, finds his rival, Hubert Updike, plunging into first place in a stormy romantic triangle on the "Alan Young Show" at 8 p. m. Friday over ABC.
