

Girl Appears Again 'Chicago Theatre' Show

Time Harriet O'Rourke, daughter of Albert O'Rourke, Creek Country club and golf course, will be principal "Chicago Theatre of the Air" to be broadcast at 9 p. m. MBS.

Since before, Miss O'Rourke sang the aria "Polanaise" "Mignon" with Marion Claire and Richard Tucker, stars of the show in supporting roles. She will appear again with Tucker in the duet from act I of Doinzette's "Lucia Di Lammermoor" and "Indian Love Call" from Friml's "Rose Marie."

R. E. Gould, whose recent novel "Yankee Storekeeper," has won him wide acclaim from literary critics, will match wits with the panel of regulars on "Twenty Questions" the new quiz program which is heard at 7 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Bill Slater acts as master of ceremonies, and the permanent members of the series include Fred Van Deventer, newsman; Florence Rinard, teacher and musician; Herb Poleste, director and producer, and 14-year-old Bobby McGuire.

Henry Morgan, zany radio comedian who wins friends by alienating people, will bring his high art of insult to the microphone at 8 p. m. Saturday over MBS when he makes a repeat guest appearance on the ad lib round table of romance show, "Leave it to the Girls."

Facing the star of "Here's Morgan" will be the regular panel of glamor girls, Actress Madge Evans; fashion editor, Robin Chandler; advertising executive, Eloise McElhone, and their guest "girl" of the week, the film and stage actress, Glenda Farrell.
