

Want Guest Stars Allen' Show Sunday

emanating from Allen's Alley Sunday evening r Levant when he guests with Fred Allen on 7:30 over NBC.

the Alley residents will be there including announcer, in his famous characterization of Minerva Pious as "Mrs. Nussbaum"; Alan Reed

," and Par-
s Moody."
will star on

IDE

23
rmer—nbc
Forum—cbs
ongs—abc
ins.—mbs
Forum—nbc
mment—abc
mbs—basic
dtable—nbc
station—cbs
News—abc
Time—mbs
in London
—cbs

Barlow—nbc
ests—cbs
Show—abc
mpden—mbs
s Song—nbc
adio—abc
ment—mbs
Talk—mbs
ax Hill—nbc
estra—cbs
ntary—abc
ariety—mbs
rogram—abc
Drama—nbc
Plays—abc
ogram—mbs
l—abc
Guests—nbc

stery—mbs
Concert—nbc
ts—cbs
Quiz—abc
adio—mbs
concert—nbc
arrell—cbs
ains.)—abc
amatic—mbs

rspy—abc
Drama—mbs
ntary—cbs
Service—nbc

stra—abc
Drama—mbs
ramatic—nbc
Music—abc

the "Harvest of Stars" program, which can be heard at 1 p. m.
Sunday over NBC, featuring fabulous Tin Pan alley and the Metropolitan Opera star, Mona Paulee, singing American popular songs.

In a dramatic sketch, Massey will play the role of Harry Armstrong, one of the early "greats" of the legendary "Alley." Armstrong is the man who wrote a song he couldn't sell until he plugged it with a barbershop quartet. The number was "Sweet Adeline."

An average American takes a tour of a television studio and finds out what makes it tick, when "Exploring the Unknown" tells the story of "Television" at 8 p. m. Sunday over MBS. The drama will tell what television is, how it works, how it looks, and how soon we can expect it to be generally available.

Alec Templeton will have Clark Dennis as his singing guest at 7 p.
m. Sunday over NBC. Dennis is the boy whose career began with the high school choir in Flint, Mich. After experience in the dance band field with Jay Whidden and Ben Pollack, he stepped back into radio.

Screen star Virginia Bruce plays the leading role in the opening broadcast of the summer "Silver Theatre" when she stars in True Boardman's "Romance, Incorporated," at 5 p. m. Sunday over CBS. A comedy-drama, the play points up what happens when a lady marriage broker takes her own medicine. Virginia finds the going tough, but very interesting.