

Henry J. Taylor Is Guest On Saturday Radio Show

Henry J. Taylor, internationally known journalist and economist, takes time off from his more serious duties as a commentator on MBS to toot the silver horn in defense of the males as guest on "Leave it to the Girls" at 8 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

A former prison inmate, convicted and sentenced to a two and a half to five-year prison term on charges of felonious assault, will tell the story of his life on the weekly MBS crime prevention interview, "I Was a Convict" at 6:45 p. m. Saturday.

"Grownups take advantage of me when I go to the store." This is one of the problems to be considered by the MBS moppet panel on "Juvenile Jury" at 7:30 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

A one man crusade against fire-crackers and other dangerous Fourth of July noisemakers is carried on by "Jonathan Trimble, Esq., who offers a program of speeches, band music and a demonstration by the volunteer fire department as a substitute, on the program at 8:30 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Heinzl Weber, 13-year-old pianist, will share honors with Penny Perry, soprano, and George Tozzi, baritone, when he appears as guest soloist on the "Chicago Theatre of the Air" series at 9 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Heinzl, son of Henry Weber, "Chicago Theatre of the Air" conductor, and Marion Claire, soprano star of the series, will present a performance of the first movement of Mozart's Concerto No. 23 in A Major for piano and orchestra.

Ashland Chamber Gains Two Awards

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 29— (AP) — The Junior Chamber of Commerce at Ashland, O., held two awards today for aviation projects it sponsored last year.

The honors, presented yesterday at the parent group's annual convention, were first prize for such projects among cities between 10,000 and 100,000 population and a special award for similar work.

Other awards to Ohio Junior chambers included:

Publications, mimeographed — First prize, East Liverpool.

Edgar Allan Poe, at the age of 26, was twice as old as his wife.