

Atomic Bomb Is E On 'Exploring the U

About three hours after the atomic bomb is dropped at Bikini atoll, "Exploring the Unknown" will be a dramatic explanation of the test and its background.

The bomb is to be dropped at 5:30 p. m. Sunday. On MBS the story will be presented. Material is drawn from a detailed file on nuclear research.

Alec Templeton plays host to one of radio's newest singing stars, Margaret Whiting, on his Sunday evening program at 7 p. m. over NBC.

Margaret is a member of one of America's most talented families. Her father, the late Richard Whiting, wrote "My Ideal" and many other hit songs, while her younger sister, Barbara, is a featured film actress.

Victor Moore, the quiet, pathetic and funny little gent of radio, stage and screen, will be guest on the last Fred Allen show of this season at 7:30 p. m. Sunday over NBC. Fred will be back on the air Sunday, Oct. 6, at his regular time but until then, Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra will take over.

George Sanders, British-born film star, will make a guest appearance on the Louella Parsons show at 8:15 p. m. Sunday over ABC.

"The Charity Swindle," a vicious fraud perpetrated upon good-intentioned, unsuspecting citizens, is exposed and broken up by "Special Investigator" at 7:30 p. m. Sunday over MBS.

The story behind Gilbert Stuart's famous painting of George Washington, will be unfolded as MBS presents the latest "Private Showing" in its series of art appreciating programs at 1 p. m. Sunday.

Screen Headliner Dane Clark stars in "Return to Tomorrow," an original radio drama to be presented on the "Silver Theatre" broadcast at 5 p. m. Sunday over CBS.
