

Musical Salute to Latins For Radio Show on Monday

A musical salute to Latin America is a highlight of "Tonight on Broadway" at 9:30 p. m. Monday over CBS. Ray Bloch's orchestra and chorus open the medley with "Cai Cai," while Jane Froman sings "Stars in Your Eyes," Bobby Doyle solos "Negra Consentida," and Miss Froman adds "Amor."

Sudden death to the tune of roaring racing cars confronts Bulldog Drummond in the "Case of the Haunted Speedway" during "The Adventures of Bulldog Drummond" program at 7 p. m. Monday over MBS.

Death occurs in increasing numbers on the track when racing cars disintegrate as they speed along. Authorities believe that rivalry between the drivers is responsible until Drummond unearths clues which disclosed an entirely different reason.

Fourth of July pyrotechnics are dynamite for Jackie Coogan in "The Kid's" newest misadventure as Ernest Tapp, fumbling drug-store sparkler on the "Forever Ernest" comedy show at 7 p. m. Monday over CBS.

Ernest takes the wrong fireworks to an Independence day celebration. The picnickers are saved in the nick of time, when a fearless lad gets close enough to prevent an explosion.

Bob Hawk continues to send smoke to convalescing GIs during his comedy quiz, the "Bob Hawk Show" at 6:30 p. m. Monday over CBS.

Thousands of cigarets will go to the Veterans hospitals at Salt Lake City, Utah and Ft. Custer, Mich., U. S. Army AAF Regional hospital, Wright Field, Dayton, O; U. S. Naval hospital, Bainbridge, Md. and U. S. Marine hospital, San Francisco, Calif.

GI'S COMPLAINTS HEARD

DELPHOS, July 1 — Delphos citizens were requested to report