Charles Jackson, author of the famous and controversial best selling book, "The Lost Weekend," which formed the basis for the successful motion picture of that name will defend his work before the panel of experts on "The Author Meets the Critics" at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over MBS.

When Bob Crosby and Victor Borge get together on the Bob Crosby Show, at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS, the discussion probably will turn to Bob's brother Bing.

Written in a comic vein, "My Dog Has Fleas" will be the David Rose original musical piece on the "Holiday for Music" program at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Fantasy woven on the four notes and words that ukulele players warble as they tune up, "My Dog Has Fleas" is another of the rhythmic novelties for which the young modern composer-conductor is noted.

Dolores Moran, golden-haired film beauty of United Artists' lots, turns to sleuthing as arm-chair detective for Ellery Queen on a romantic mystery. "The Adventure of the War Bride," at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Co-starred with Burgess Meredith in the film, "Jonathan Loves them All." Dolores has previously played movie roles in "Horn Blows at Midnight." "To Have and Have Not" and "Hollywood Canteen."
