

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

Noon—W-G-N—"Patrick Henry and the Frigate Keel," dramatic program with music in a patriotic vein.

1:25 p. m.—WJJD—Baseball: Sox vs. St. Louis in a double header.

1:45—WIND—Baseball: Cubs vs. St. Louis in a double header.

4:30—WBBM—People's Platform: "What Is the American Way of Life?" Participants: Ralph Robey and Ralph Ingersoll.

7:00—WMAQ—Carroll Reece, chairman of the Republican National committee.

9:00—WENR—Promise Fulfilled, special program celebrating Independence of the Philippines. Speakers: President Manuel Roxas and Paul V. McNutt.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

3:00 p. m.—WBBM—Howdy, Neighbors, aired in connection with Fourth of July celebration in Monticello, Ill., with Ted Grizzard as M. C.

7:00—WBBM—Suspense: Leon Ames in "An Evening's Diversion."

7:30—W-G-N—Vic and Sade, with Art Van Harvey, Bernardine Flynn, Bill Idelson, and Clarence Hartzell.

8:00—WMAQ—Edward Everett Horton, with Eddy Duchin, Milena Miller, Russ Case, and the King Cole trio.

8:00—WBBM—Dick Haymes show, with Helen Forrest and Gordon Jenkins.

8:30—WBBM—Hobby Lobby, with Bob Dixon and guests.

8:30—WENR—Detect and Collect, comedy quiz, with Lew Lehr.

9:30—W-G-N—Crime Files of Flamond, with Myron Wallace.

9:30—WMAQ—The Fifth Horseman: Atomic story, with Henry Fonda.

9:30—WBBM—Phone Again Finnegan, with Stuart Erwin.

MUSIC

Noon—WAAF—Symphonic Hour: Mendelssohn's "Fingal's Cave" overture.

8:30 p. m.—W-G-N—By Popular Demand, with Mary Small and Harry Babbitt.

8:30—WGNB—Artist Recital, with Richard Crooks, tenor.

9:15—WIND—Symphonic Hour: McDonald's "Santa Fe Trail."

9:00—W-G-N—Music in the Night, with Robert Trendler and W-G-N orchestra. [Premiere.]

9:00—WWZR—Fourth of July program of patriotic music.

10:15—WENR—Harmony House, with Lawrence Salerno and Irma Glen.