

Henry Fonda To Play Role Of Abraham Lincoln on CBS

Henry Fonda will recreate his original screen role of Abraham Lincoln on the "Academy Award" program at 9 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

A sympathetic character sketch of the early life of the great American President, "Young Mr. Lincoln" was nominated for the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences Award for the best original screen story in 1939.

A young heiress to a vast estate, subjected to nerve-wracking torture by a greedy killer, nearly loses her mind during "The Case of the Murder on Cosmo Mountain" on "Mr. District Attorney" at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday over NBC. Jay Jostyn, who plays the title role, aided by Harrington, his assistant, loses no time in bringing to justice a money-mad killer.

Master Detective Ellery Queen will have Wallace C. Siple, Canadian flying ace, as his guest arm-chair detective on "The Adventure of the Confidential Agent" at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS. Queen's yarn has a mysterious secret that turns a smooth, "correct" English butler into the proprietor of the "Fenwick Confidential Agency."

Death refuses to take a holiday when "Mr. and Mrs. North" decide to go on a quiet vacation at 7 p. m. Wednesday over NBC. The end of the restful two weeks comes

In Hollywood

With

ERSKINE
JOHNSON

LAS VEGAS, Nev., July 10 — (NEA)—We're out in the Wild West, where the neon lights are brighter, the Pony Express is a 10-ton bus, the girls' bathing suits are scantier, and the dice and the gamblers roam. This is where, Ed Gardner says, they hanged a fellow for violating the code of the range because he said a discouraging word.

Oh, home, home, on the air-conditioned range, Where the divorcees and the movie stars play.

Where seldom is heard a discouraging word,

And the swimming pool is not

RADIO GUIDE

$46.
"con
Chu

L
2