

Jed Prouty Guest Artist On Saturday MBS Program

Jed Prouty, veteran stage and screen actor, best known for his portrayal of Father Jones in the "Jones Family" series, will match wits with the panel of regulars when he makes a guest appearance on the radio version of the old parlor game, "Twenty Questions," at 7 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

The experts who attempt to identify the "animal, vegetable or mineral" are Fred Van Deventer, newscaster; Florence Rinard, musician and teacher; Herb Polesie, radio producer, and 14-year-old Bobby McGuire. Bill Slatcr acts as master of ceremonies.

Albert N. Williams, radio editor of the Saturday Review of Literature, takes up the cudgel for the downtrodden male when he matches wits with four of the sharpest girls in the radio repartee field on "Leave it to the Girls." at 8 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Eddie Bracken and Djana Lynn will be featured in the radio version of "Christmas in July" on "Hollywood Star Time," dramatic show over CBS at 7 p. m. Saturday. Milton Geiger, ace radio scripter, will adapt the story for radio and a special musical score will be written by Frank De Vol.

Professor Larrabee's traveling medicine show, featuring "Little Roumania," who physically demonstrates the value of Dr. Larrabee's magic all-purpose elixir, pays its annual visit to the thriving community of Bellport and incurs the wrath of "Jonathan Trimble, Esq., on the broadcast at 8:30 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

ONLY A COUSIN

CINCINNATI, July 13—(AP)—

A baby girl who looked to a suburban Reading resident like a three-year-old Loretta Doan, missing from her Rockcastle-co. Ky., home since July 4, had been identified today by Walter Doan, Loretta's father, as "a fifth cousin of my Loretta," Earl Hollin of the Reading police reported.

WORKER DIES

YOUNGSTOWN, July 13 — (AP) — Funeral services will be conducted here Monday for Frank Haines Ross, who died yesterday of a heart attack while working as a volunteer for the Christ Mission settlement. For nearly 20 years he was a teacher in Cleveland's East Technical high school.