

Film Farce Recreated Saturday Radio Show

Montgomery recreates his screen role in an adaptation of a "Mr. and Mrs. Smith" over CBS on "Hollywood Star" m. Saturday.

He plays the role of a husband put into a peculiar position that he has been illegally wed to his wife—and has to live over again with her playing "hard to get" after the

GUIDE

DAY, JULY 20
(a Time)

er Family Drama—nbc
he Bandstand—cbs
rom Fort Wayne—abc
rt Orches.—mbs-basle Opry House—mbs-west Nature Sketches—nbc
member, Chorus—abc
wease In Variety—nbc
ome, Drama Ser.—cbs
se From a Trio—abc
our in Afternoon—mbs
ne, Guest Speaker—cbs
t Acquainted—nbc
e From Hollywood—abc
c. AFL—D. Cooke—cbs
nounced (30 m.)—nbc
Music Orchestra—cbs
Duke Ellington—ahr
Dancing Music—mbs
Are Yours—nbc
usic Time—cbs
linstead—nbc
USA Interviews—mbs
y Ending, Safety—nbc
e (One Hour)—cbs
on a Saturday—abc
t Sports Guests—mbs
on—nbc
nced (30 m.)—mbs
om Snooky Lanson—nbc
y from the Rockies—abc
st for 15 m.—cbs discovery and a pointless quarrel. The late Carol Lombard co-starred with Montgomery in the picture.

"My mother's friends are always embarrassing me. When they see me they always ask me to kiss them. What should I do?" This is one of the problems to be considered by the MBS moppet panel on "Juvenile Jury" at 7:30 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Harold G. Hoffman, former governor of New Jersey, will defend the American male on "Leave it to the Girls" as he matches wits with the four lovely members of the glamor panel at 8 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Hoffman, who was a lieutenant colonel in the Army, also is a well known poet, philosopher and after dinner speaker. He will be making a return appearance on the program to continue his battle on the problems of courtship and marriage.