

Tonight's Aces

ART LUND
WIBA at 7:30

Music

6:30 p. m. — Concert Hour (WIBA): with Gladys Swarthout; "Dearly Beloved," "Close as Pages In a Book," "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton," "Two Hearts in Three-Quarter Time," "Sleeping Beauty Waltz," "Traumerei."

7 p. m. — Great Artists (WIBA): Lily Pons; "Kiss Me Again," "Je Veux Vivre" from Gounod's "Romeo et Juliette," medley of waltzes from "Die Fledermaus," "Bacchanale" from "Samson and Delilah."

7:30 p. m. — Benny Goodman (WIBA): Art Lund, vocalist, Goodman sextet and trio; Helen Ward, swing singer, guest.

Spotlight Bands (WGN): Guy Lombardo features "Full Moon and Empty Arms."

8 p. m. — Dorsey's Playshop (WGN): "The Gypsy." "Sunny

Side of the Street," "Swing High," "There's No One But You." . . . Contented Hour (WIBA): Alec Templeton, guest; "Everybody Wants a Finger in Paganini's Pie," "Way Down Yonder in New Orleans," "Blue Moon," "Where or When." * * *

Discussion

8:30 p. m. — Farm Safety Week (WIBU): Sen. Elmer Thomas (D-U.) and Ned H. Dearborn, president, National Safety council.

9:15 p. m. — You and the Atom (WBBM): first of series on programs explaining the atom, with Robert Patterson, secretary of war, as first speaker. * * *

Drama

6 p. m. — Bulldog Drummond (WGN): "Curse of the Camerons" (WIBU at 9:30).

6:30 p. m. — Case Book of Gregory Hood (WGN): "Death From the Red Capsule" . . . Crime Photographer (WBBM): "A Girl Named Kate."

7 p. m. — I Deal in Crime (WENR): Detective Dolan seeks killer, diamond brooch.

7:15 p. m. — Stories From Real Life (WGN): "Tiger Wife."

8 p. m. — Screen Guild (WBBM): Alan Ladd in "The Glass Key." * * *

Tuesdaytime

9:30 a. m. — Hymns of All Churches: "Man's Sure Destiny Is God," "Trust and Obey," "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen."

9:45 a. m. — Victor Lindlahr (WGN, WIBU): effects of iced drinks as cooling agent from standpoint of health.

12:45 p. m. — Baseball (WIND): Boston vs. White Sox.