

AUGUST 1

Special Broadcast To Mark Army Air Forces Day Thursday

Army Air Forces Day on Thursday will be saluted by MBS in a special half-hour broadcast at 9:30 p. m., featuring a lineup of celebrities, headed by Gen. Carl A. Spaatz, commanding general of the United States Army Air Forces.

Jimmy Doolittle, former lieutenant general of the Air Forces and now president of the Air Forces-assn, Ronald Regan, who will act as master of ceremonies, and Jimmy Stewart head the list of stars and celebrities who will appear on this commemorative program, which will originate in Hollywood, Washington and Boston.

maestro, performs a pair of keyboard classics, when he joins the Vaughn Monroe show as guest star for the broadcast Thursday at 9 p. m. over NBC. Monroe will be heard in two vocal solos, "Tangerine" and "They Say It's Wonderful," and will join with Betty Norton in "Who Told You That Lie."

The story of a lovely young model who marries a man unable to provide her with the luxuries to which she has become accustomed will be heard when "Real Stories from Real Life," presents the two-day drama, "I Met Temptation," Thursday and Friday at 8:15 p. m. over MBS.

J. Carol Nash, film's bad man, will be heard as a middle-aged auditor who plans to murder his wife and marry his secretary in "Blue Eyes," the story to be presented on "Suspense," radio's theatre of thrills, at 7 p. m. Thursday over CBS.

Expert instrument pilots usually are able to make blind landings with the Army Air Corps radio system, after two or three hours of practice.

DEDICATED to
YOUR SERVICE

Your Walgreen pharmacist cates his knowledge of experience to stands ever ready not only in your needs, but to follow orders to the letter need a prescription on your Walgreen

RADIO GUIDE