

Tonight's Aces

Variety

6:30 p. m.—Sound Off With Mark Warnow (WBBM): guest, Janette Davis, singer; "Ballad for Americans" with Glenn Darwin, baritone, as soloist; drama about peacetime work of army engineers

Meredith Willson Show (WIBA): "Steak and Potatoes," "I'm Just Wild About Harry," "Iowa," "Call Me Up Some Rainy Afternoon."

7 p. m.—Music Hall (WIBA): "More Than You Know," "The Gypsy," "Lady Be Good," "I Don't Know Why."

7:30 p. m.—Village Store (WMAQ): Jack Haley avoids a fur coat salesman and gets locked up in a cold storage vault; Bob Stanton sings "To Each His Own."

* * *

Discussion

9:15 p. m.—You and the Atom (WBBM): "What Controls Are Necessary With the World?" David E. Lilienthal, chairman of TVA.

* * *

Miscellaneous

6:30 p. m.—How Do You Pronounce It (WCFL): pronunciation panel includes Slapsie Maxie Rosenbloom, pugilist-night club entertainer; Shirley Linder, actress; Kenneth Bumstead, British consulate.

* * *

Drama

6 p. m.—Suspense (WBBM): "Articles of Death," story of a man who suffered a cataleptic stroke and is mistaken for dead . . .

Carrington Playhouse (WGN): "Your Time Is Up" . . . Olmsted Playhouse (WMAQ): Olmstead relates "Fortitude" by Albert Richard Wetjen.

7:30 p. m.—Crime Photographer (WBBM): new time and day; series features Staats Cotsworth and Lesley Woods.

8:30 p. m.—The Fifth Horseman (WMAQ): "The Day of Doom."

* * *

Music

7 p. m.—Dick Haymes Show (WBBM): "Pagan Love Song," "St. Louis Blues," "Chinatown," "All the Things You Are," "Cynthia's in Love."
8 p. m.—Vaughn Monroe

BETTY NORTON
WIBA at 8

(WIBA): "Seems Like Old Times," "Blue Room," "All Through the Day," "Prisoner of Love," "Indiana," guest, Alvino Rey, guitarist, with Betty Norton and Moon Maids . . . Music In the Night (WGN): "Brazil," "Time On My Hands," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Andalusia."

9 p. m.—Supper Club (WIBA): Peggy Lee, guest vocalist.

9:30 p. m.—Concert of Nations (WIBA): guest conductor, J. M. Velasco Maidana, composer, presenting two dances from his ballet "Amerindia," "Fiesta" and "Indiana," "A Mischievous Boy's Dream," "Himno y Danza," and "Marinera y Tondero."

Fridaytime

9:30 a. m.—Hymns of All Church (WLS): "I'd Rather Have Jesus," "Come Thou Almighty King," "Nearer My God to Thee."

11:30 a. m.—Elizabeth Hart Presents (WMAQ): Earl W. Clark, new acting regional administrator of OPA.

5:30 p. m.—Tommy Riggs (WBBM): Betty Lou takes over a department store, and her boy friend, Wilbur, becomes the floor-walker.