

Tonight's Aces

Sports

6:45 p. m.—Baseball (WIND): Chicago at Pittsburgh.
 8 p. m.—Boxing (WENR): Tony Pellone and Ruby Kessler.
 * * *

Discussion

9:15 p. m.—You and the Atom (WBBM): "What Does the Rest of the World Think of the Atom Bomb?"
 * * *

Drama

6:30 p. m.—Thin Man (WBBM): return of series; new time and day; Les Damon stars as Nick, and Claudia Morgan as Nora; premiere, "The Case of the Talking Shoe."
 ... This Is Your FBI (WLS): FBI traps forgers through a staple in bottom of a book of matches.
 8 p. m.—Mercury Theater (WBBM): Agnes Moorehead and Orson Welles in "American Cavalcade" . . . Mystery Theater (WIBA): "Silent As the Grave."
 8:30 p. m.—Mystery House (WGN): "Murder Is An Art"
 9 p. m.—Adventures of Sam Spade (WENR): "Death And Company."
 10:30 p. m.—Tales of the Foreign Service (WMAQ): "The Death and Rebirth of An American Embassy."
 * * *

Music

6 p. m.—Highways in Melody (WIBA): guest, Thomas Hayward, tenor; "You and I," "I'm Falling in Love With Someone," "Castle of Dreams," "Chicken Reel," . . . Career Performance (WGN): guest, William Conroy, tenor; "Flower Song" from "Carmen," "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," "Czardas," "Thousand and One Nights."
 7:15 p. m.—Sing, America, Sing (WGN): new program of popular melodies of the past; "Hands Across the Table," "June in January," "I Get a Kick Out of You," "You're the Top."
 7:30 p. m.—Wayne King Show (WBBM): "Night and Day," "Tumbling Tumbleweed," "Spring Rain," "The Doodle Song," "The Gondoliers" . . . Waltz Time (WIBA): "They Say Its Wonderful," "I'd Be Lost Without You," "Surrender," "I'll Be With You in Apple Blossom Time" . . . Spotlight Bands (WGN, WIBU): Harry James; "Seems Like Old Times," "Embraceable You," "Along With Me."
 * * *

Saturdaytime

9 a. m.—Teentimers Club (WMAQ): guests, Benny Goodman orchestra.
 9:05 a. m.—Let's Pretend (WBBM): "Faithful John."
 9:30 a. m.—Home Is What You

LES DAMON
 WBBM at 6:30

Make It (WIBA) domestic life in France.
 10 a. m.—Theater of Today (WBBM): "My Friend, Mr. Smith."
 10:30 a. m.—Stars Over Hollywood (WBBM): Iona Massey in "Clara Danich."
 11 a. m.—National Farm and Home Hour (WMAQ): Lucile Holmes of department of agriculture tells methods of preserving peaches; music, "Nola," selections from "Up In Central Park." . . . Grand Central Station (WBBM): with Julie Stevens and Berry Kroeger.
 12:30 p. m.—All-American Boys Baseball Game (WLS): Ty Cobb's West team vs. Honus Wagner's East team; description by Harry Wagner and Jimmy Neenan . . . The Heaters (WMAQ): Sandy Lehman to talk.
 12:45 p. m.—Nature Sketches (WMAQ): "Stories in Stone."
 1 p. m.—Piano Playhouse (WCFL): with Earl Wild as soloist; "In Love in Vain," "Girl Friend," "Stardust," "Polonaise in A Major," Chopin . . . Saturday Showcase (WMAQ): talent from WTMJ, Milwaukee, including The Aristocrats, concert orchestra; Elvita Clementi, soprano; Paul Skinner, tenor.
 1:15 p. m.—Baseball (WIND): Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates.
 2:30 p. m.—The Schools Are Yours (WIBA): "School Sports For All."
 3 p. m.—No Happy Ending (WMAQ): dramatization concerning tragic implications of so-called "minor" accident . . . Here's to Veterans (WBBM): program by Kate Smith, Ted Collins, Jack Miller's orchestra.
 4:45 p. m.—Labor, USA (WENR): Phil Hannah, assistant secretary of labor; Boris Shiskin, AFL economist; and James Brownlow, secretary-treasurer of AFL Metal Trades department.
 5 p. m.—St. Louis Municipal Opera (WBBM): "My Hero," "One Kiss," "Rio Rita," "The Song Is You." . . . Our Foreign Policy (WMAQ): "The New International Court."