

Kansas Girl Hunts 'D. T.' On Program at Playshop

Looking for Mr. "T. D."—with an assist from "Queen for a Day." That's the saga of 23-year-old Pauline Saviano, Kansas girl vocalist, who hopes to hear her name read off when Tommy Dorsey announces the winner of his nationwide hunt for a new girl vocalist over "Tommy Dorsey's Playshop" at 9 p. m. Monday over MBS.

Pauline, convinced that Tommy need look no further, journeyed to Hollywood to personally deliver a recording of her voice to him. She finally received promise of an introduction to the trombone maestro when she visited Mutual's "Queen for a Day" program.

A blood-soaked chiller, "Preview for Murder," starring Lawson Zerbe, is the "Inner Sanctum" mystery at 7 p. m. Monday over CBS. Your host, Paul McGrath, with diabolical taunts, will lead brave listeners thru the ominously creaking door, to the grisly drama beyond.

What Gregory Hood expects to be a very dull convention in San Francisco turns out to be an interesting gathering of a secret society, in the latest entry in "The Case Book of Gregory Hood," to be heard at 7:30 p. m. Monday over MBS.

Gregory is literally pulled to the meeting by his friend, Sandy, but his interest is quickly revived when he uncovers three murders against a background of ancient mystic rituals.

A clever gang of counterfeiters who have been flooding the United States and Canada with thousands of worthless bills, find themselves the object of an intensive search during "Voyage of Death" on the "Adventures of Bulldog Drummond" at 7 p. m. Monday over MBS.
