

Music with Chuckle Offered By Dick Haymes Thursday

Music with a chuckle and an Indian motif comes up on CBS' "Dick Haymes Show," when maestro Gordon Jenkins and the cast of 63 offer "Red Wing" as the capsule operetta, at 8 p. m. Thursday. Along with the production number the program offers the Four Hits and a Miss and the Suitcase Six in a variety of tunes.

The current housing shortage and plans to provide adequate housing facilities for returned veterans will be discussed by Wilson Wyatt, National Housing administrator, when he is questioned by John Small, civilian production administrator, on a special MBS panel discussion at 9:30 p. m. Thursday.

A medley of 10 numbers in honor of the nation's song pluggers is Meredith Wilson's orchestral highlight on a broadcast at 7:30 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Finnegan, portrayed by Stuart Erwin, is all for cutting down his family tree. As manager of the Welcome Arms apartments on the "Phone Again Finnegan" program at 9:30 p. m. Thursday over CBS, Finnegan has enough worries without getting a visit from cousin Firby.

Hit tunes of today and yesterday will be featured on the Music Hall when the show takes to the air at 8 p. m. Thursday over NBC. Eddy Duchin, emcee, will open the musical half-hour. Edward Everett Horton, Milena Miller, the King Cole Trio, and Russ Case and his orchestra are scheduled to fill featured spots.

Henry Daniell will be heard as a cynic who makes a macabre wager when he stars in "Last Letter of Dr. Johnson," on "Suspense," at 7 p. m. Thursday over CBS. He bets that he can buy the lives of five people, and in trying to carry out the terms of his gamble, he encounters startling developments. Stan Kenton brings his flying fingers to the Vaughn Monroe show, when the pianist-conductor appears as Monroe's guest on the broadcast at 9 p. m. Thursday over NBC.
