

Line of Grid Broadcasts Set for Coming Season

are now pretty well in shape for the new season of college football. Three networks have set their starts for September 18th to begin the following week.

Football is on the list for Sept. 21. Army vs. Villanova will be broadcast by CBS and ABC, while Illinois vs. Pittsburgh is to be on NBC. On Sept. 28, MBS and NBC will broadcast the Notre Dame game.

Football will be on hand for the first time since Wisner for ABC. Red Barber and Howard Cosell are included in the MBS

James Stewart, lanky, lovable "Oscar" winning screen star, will have the leading role in the tragicomic drama, "One Sunday Afternoon," on the "Academy Award" program at 9 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

"Peace of Mind," Joshua Loth Liebman's book on the relationship between psychiatry and religion, now number two on the nation's nonfiction best seller list, will be discussed on "Author Meets Critics" at 9:30 p. m. over MBS.

Jack Haley, radio comedian, will take over the "College of Musical Knowledge," as visiting dean on the Wednesday broadcast at 9 p. m. over NBC. Kay Kyser is vacationing.

David Rose has injected musical whimsy into his original, "Dance of the Gremlins," which he will play with his 45-piece orchestra on "Holiday for Music," at 9:30 p. m. over CBS. Brain child of a black night when troublesome gremlins kept away sleep, the Rose number is a simple melody written in reproach of the nagging elves.

A gangster and his moll, ruling their city with an iron hand, start a revival of old-time violence and murder during "The Cast of the Conference of Killers" on "Mr. District Attorney" at 8:30 p. m. over NBC.
