

Shows Are Ready To Open New Season on Airwaves

of 1946's first September month breaks over Sunday's o program season will start in earnest. As far as a n goes, a total of 58 shows will have found places medules before winter. The overall total is expected re coming back from vacations of varying periods,

GUIDE

Y, AUG. 31

(Time)

Family Drama—nbs
ks in Review—cbs

Orchestra—mbs—basic

ry House—mbs—west

ture Sketches—nbc

ience Talks—cbs

ber Concert—abc

se In Variety—nbc

he Bandstand—cbs

r in Afternoon—mbs

—abc

Guest Speaker—cbs

acquainted—nbc

Hollywood—abc

AFL—D. Cooke—cbs

quist and Orchestra

usic—cbs

Duke Ellington—abc

tinued—mbs

Yours—nbc

l (30 min.)—cbs

portunity U.S.A.—mbs

elson Oimstead—nbc

Ending, Safety—nbc

One Hour)—cbs

a Saturday—abc

but the number also includes 10 new programs. Among these are the Mel Blanc series for CBS, Don Ameche for NBC, the Gold and Silver Minstrels on MBS, and Henry Morgan Stanza of ABC.

The September parade opens with Sunday's return of Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy to NBC and Ozzie and Harriet Nelson to CBS.

Vacation traveling isn't the rest it's supposed to be, according to Judy Canova, who will return to the airwaves on the "Judy Canova Show" over NBC at 9 p. m. Saturday.

Lois Gentile, young mezzo-soprano, and Bruce Foote, baritone, will be soloists on "Chicago Theatre of the Air" over MBS at 9 p. m. Highlights of the program will be a medley of selections from Bizet's "Carmen."