

Wagner's 100th Anniversary Marked on 'Firestone' Hour

Howard Barlow will mark the 100th anniversary of the Wagner music drama, "Lohengrin," by playing the familiar prelude to Act Three on the "Voice of Firestone" program at 7:30 p. m. Monday over NBC. Gladys Swarthout will be guest artist.

Loretta Young and Brian Aherne will play the principal roles in "The Barrets of Wimpole Street" when the original Broadway play is dramatized on the Radio Theatre at 8 p. m. over CBS. The full hour dramatic show will be under the direction of William Keighley with Lou Silvers conducting the program music.

After an absence of two weeks lovely songstress Jane Froman rejoins Joe Besser, Bobby Doyle and Ted Husing on the "Tonight on Broadway" show at 9:30 p. m.

A gentleman gunman will tangle with a courageous redhead in "Murder Comes at Midnight," the killer chiller on the "Inner Sanctum" murder mystery show at 7 p. m. Monday over CBS. A titian-haired wife fights a charmer with bloody hands and a price on his head for the life of her husband and child.

Guy Lombardo and his orchestra open the fall season for "Spotlight Bands" at 8:30 p. m. over MBS appropriately enough with the hit tune, "They Say it's Wonderful."
