

Tonight's Aces

Discussion

7:30 p. m.—American Forum of the Air (WIBU): "Atomic Energy—Who Shall Control It;" Harold E. Stassen, Rep. Claire Boothe Luce, Dr. Irving Langmuir, and Rep. J. Parnell Thomas.

Variety

6 p. m.—Rudy Vallee Show (WMAQ): new program with Vallee and Benny Kreuger orchestra; guests, Hal Peary (Great Gildersleeve) and Lina Romay, singer. (WIBA at 9:30.)

8:30 p. m.—Red Skelton (WIBA): return of series with Ge Ge Pearson, Verna Felton and Anita Ellis.

Miscellaneous

7 p. m.—Vox Pop: (WBBM): broadcasts from American Junior Beetle Cat Boat races on Narragansett Bay.

Music

7:30 p. m.—Chicago Philharmonic (WGN): John Alden Carpenter's "Adventures in a Perambulator," Strauss' "Improvisation," and Overture to Kabalevsky's "Colas Breugnon" . . . Fred Waring (WIBA): "Blue Skies," "I've Got the Sun in the Morning," "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "All Alone," "Russian Lullaby." * * *

Drama

6 p. m.—Big Town (WBBM): "The Hawkers of Hate," story about bigotry and prejudice surrounding an election.

6:30 p. m.—The Falcon (WIBU, WGN): "Death Springs From a Pen."

7 p. m.—Grand Marquee (WMAQ): Jim Ameche in African jungle story, "Miss Livingstone, I Presume."

7:30 p. m.—A Date With Judy (WIBA): Father Foster urges Judy to see Oogie less frequently.

Hollywood Players (WBBM): John Garfield in "Fallen Sparrow."

8 p. m.—Man Called X (WIBA) trails black market gang from New York to Spain.

9:30 p. m.—Olmsted Playhouse (WMAQ): "Boy Scout."

RED SKELTON
WIBA at 8:30

Wednesdaytime

9:30 a. m.—Hymns of All Churches (WLS): "The Stranger of Galilee," "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus," "When I Survey." . . . Time to Remember (WBBM): Milton Bacon tells story of "The Governor of Tennessee."

10:15 a. m.—Morton Downey (WGN) honors Al Sigl, Rochester, N. Y., newspaperman, for his community contributions.

11:45 a. m.—John J. Anthony (WGN): counsels a foster mother about her disappointment in her ambitions for her adopted son.

1 p. m.—Kickoff Broadcast (WHA, WIBU): John Berge, Wisconsin Alumni assn. secretary, introduces Coach Harry Stuhldreher, who tells Wisconsin's football outlook for season.

1:15 p. m.—Baseball (WIND): Chicago Cubs and Boston Braves.

2 p. m.—Baseball (WJJD): Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers.

5:30 p. m.—Sound Off With Mark Warnow (WBBM): Warnow orchestra, Lynn Murray chorus, Audrey Marsh, guest vocalist . . . Lone Ranger (WLS): "Property Rights."