

y of Superstitions Given Friday, 13th

y the thirteenth, and "Spotlight on America" turns those countless "superstitions" that have grown into passing of the years at 9 p. m. over MBS.

itious? And if so, why? Has anything really ever as a result of violating the conventional taboos that ated, especially with regard to the number 13? Our se mercilessly exe of the spotlight.

le comes to bloom ooks attends a flower show during the broadcast of "The Baby Snooks Show" over CBS at 7 p. m.

A mellow $1,000 will be the minimum night's income of the contestant clever enough to successfully counter with the correct answers to Emcee Bert Parks' withering questions on "Break the Bank," on ABC at 8 p. m.

* Representative E. Carroll Reece (R-Tenn.), chairman of the Republican National committee, will be the guest on the news conference of the air, "Meet the Press," at 9:30 p. m. over MBS.

With his famed trumpet ready, Harry James leads his swing crew in a festive session of torrid numbers in the first of their regular Friday broadcasts in the new fall series of "Spotlight Bands," at 8:30 p. m. over MBS.

In "The Case of the Haunted Detective," Nick and Nora Charles find themselves on the trail of metaphysical murder during the "Adventures of the Thin Man," at 7:30 p. m. over CBS.
