

Radio Opera Series Saturday over MBS

"Theatre of the Air" opera and operetta series starring and distinguished guest stars will open its seventh stage of Chicago's Medinah Temple at 9 p. m. Saturoperas will be given their first "Theatre of the Air" during the 1946-47 season, according to Henry Weber, in the schedule for the which have become their presentation of "La Traviata," "The Barber of Figaro" and the new production, along with many including "Rose Marie Sweet," "Sweethearts," "Faust," "Carmen" and "Naughty Marietta."

When Red Foley came to the NBC "Grand Ole Opry" last April as singing star and emcee, he quietly announced to friends that as soon as he had time, he was going to organize a stringed band of his own. That ambition he now has realized, and altho he still has the new aggregation under wraps, he will unveil them on the Opry stage at 9:30 p. m. Saturday over NBC.

At present he is toying with names for the new group, the best-sounding to him so far being "Red Foley and his Kentuckians."

Two top football teams of the nation, the University of Missouri "Tigers" and the University of Texas "Longhorns," who were pitted against each other in the annual New Year's Day Cotton Bowl game, last year, renew their gridiron feud as MBS brings listeners a play by play description of this pigskin classic at 3:15 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Sam Colt, inventor of the Colt revolver, gave exhibitions of laughing gas in traveling shows to obtain the cash needed to patent his revolver.
