

Warren Guests ie McCarthy Show

Edgar Bergen's "bad boy," had better watch his y over NBC when he entertains California's Gov. val air station at Alameda, Calif. Gov. Warren forcement and in recent years he has contributed s subject to various journals.

York City tenor, late of the Navy, is the soaring will be co-

ond Massey
on the "Harvest of Stars" show at 1:30 p. m. over NBC.

Frank Parker, romantic tenor of stage and screen, will be guest on the "Family Hour" at 4 p. m. over CBS. The show stars Patrice Munsel with Al Goodman's orchestra and chorus.

The wonders of electronics, including its many medical applications will be described when "Exploring the Unknown" science drama series presents the story of "Electronic Surgery" in the broadcast at 8 p. m. over MBS.

Comedian Phil Silvers, whose "glad to see you" catch-phrase has become a trade mark in his movies and musical comedies, will be guest star of Emcee Bill Slater at 3:30 p. m. over ABC on "Right Down Your Alley."

Jeanne Crain will appear as guest on Louella Parsons show at 8:15 p. m. over ABC. She will discuss her meteoric rise to fame during the interview.

GUIDE

r. 22

A Forum—nbc
a Forum—cba

Mins.—mbs
ckly Comment
abc

mbs ndtable—nbc
entation—cbs
e: News—abc
Time—mbs
—cbs

ne Solos—mbs
d Concert—nbc
ployment—cbs
y Show—abc
ampden—mbs
n Barlow—nbc

mmment—mbs
scussion—mbs
Max Hill—nbc

y Music—mbs
Drama—abc
Drama—nbc