

Montgomery, Nugent Occupy 'Information Please' Berths

Robert Montgomery and Elliot Nugent will be on the "Information Please" board of experts at 10:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS. With Clifton Fadiman as master of ceremonies, John Kieran and Franklin P. Adams will occupy their regular places as experts on the half-hour program.

Long cast as a playboy in sophisticated "drawing room comedies," Montgomery gave a memorable performance as the psychopatic murderer in "Night Must Fall." He served in the Navy as a commander and later starred in "They Were Expendable," the story of PT boats in the Pacific. Nugent, star of the long-lived Broadway play, "Voice of the Turtle," is a noted actor, author and director.

Eddie Bracken, droll movie actor, will star as the prophetic cub his girl in "It Happened Tomorrow," fanciful comedy on "Academy Award" at 10 p. m. over CBS.

Ellery Queen returns from a five-week vacation with a new series of mystery stories and with the French global heartbeat, Jean Sablon for his guest armchair sleuth on the opening broadcast of the new series, "The Adventures of Ellery Queen, Criminal," at 7:30 p. m. over CBS.

"Pikes Peak or Bust," latest literary effort of Earl Wilson, noted "saloon editor" and syndicated columnist, will be the target for "Author Meets Critics" when the
