

Nation's Top Stars To Boost Community Chest Campaign

Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Frank Sinatra, Red Skelton, Jack Benny, Robert Young and a host of stars of stage, screen and radio will air their talents in behalf of the annual nation-wide Community Chest drive on a special MBS broadcast to be heard Saturday at 11:30 p. m. from Hollywood.

Tony Martin, Frances Langford, Fibber McGee and Molly and many appearing on the Parsons broadcast, took an opposite stand and condemned the tendency of youthful fans to be over-enthusiastic.

The Jack Benny show, at 7 p. m. over NBC, will bring to the Benny microphone for the first time that resourceful refugee from a woodyard, Charlie McCarthy, and his amiable stooge, Edgar Bergen.

In keeping with Charlie's reputation as a timber wolf, Mary Livingstone will wear a fawn gown for the occasion, the cost of which the Waukegan Wit will probably deduct from Charlie's fee as a guest star.

Fred Allen will present his idea of "The Mikado," popular Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, at 8.30 p.

m. over NBC. Tony Martin, singing star of radio and motion pictures who will be Allen's guest, will lend his voice to the lyrics.

Lily Pons, coloratura soprano of the Metropolitan opera, will be the guest of Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy at 8 p. m. over NBC. Mortimer Snerd, Vocalist Anita Gordon and Ray Noble and his orchestra round out the regular cast of the half-hour show.

Jeanette MacDonald, popular soprano, will make a guest appearance on the "Family Hour" broadcast at 7 p. m. over CBS. Patrice Munsel, the program's star, is out of town for an opera performance.

Leo Durocher, who just missed by an eyelash being a guiding factor in the World Series, will discuss its outcome and tell from his viewpoints what he thought were deciding plays when he starts his first question-and-answer
