

Crosby, Russell, Kate Smith Aid Infantile Paralysis Drive

Bing Crosby, Rosalind Russell, Kate Smith and a distinguished cast of star performers will be heard on a special MBS broadcast inaugurating the 1946 appeal for funds in support of the Sister Kenny Foundation for the treatment of infantile paralysis, Saturday at 9 p. m.

With Anton Dvorak's Symphony No. 5 in E Minor, more popularly bussy tone poem, "Afternoon of known as the "New World Symphony," as the major work, George Szell conducts the Cleveland symphony in a full hour concert including the familiar "De-a Faun," and highlighting Williams Grant Still's "In Memorium—the Negro Soldiers Who Died for Democracy," on the broadcast at 6 p. m. over Mutual.

Jean Sablon will sing a French folk song, "Aupres de ma Blonde," and three American tunes on his own show at 7:15 p. m. over CBS.

Gales of laughter will result when Gail Russell and Gail Patrick join Adolphe Menjou in the stellar roles in "The Bachelor's Daughters," when that new screen comedy hit gets its radio premiere on the broadcast of "This is Hollywood," over CBS at 10:15 p. m.

Dorothy Staiger, soprano, co-starring with tenor Richard Tucker of the Metropolitan Opera, will sing the title role in Emmerich Kalman's gay "Gypsy Princess," on the "Chicago Theatre of the Air," at 10 p. m. over Mutual.

New Antarctic Mission Listed

LONDON, Nov. 16 — (INS) —

The Daily Graphic said today that the Norwegian foreign ministry has announced a forthcoming joint British-Norwegian-Swedish expedition to the antarctic to search for uranium deposits.

This mission was expected to parallel an expedition leaving the United States soon under the command of Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd.
