Arms Inventory Debate Planned

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 23—(UP) — The United Nations political committee pushed toward climactic debate and a vote today on Russia's plan for an inventory of Allied bases and armed forces on foreign soil.

The United States, while tempted to play the role of mediator between Russia and Britain on the troops issue, possibly will formalize its heretofore informal request that the Soviet proposal be extended to troops at home as well as those abroad.

Britain planned to fight to the last to have the 54-nation political committee delay a decision on the Soviet proposal, and seek to couple it with the next item on the committee's calendar — the
