

Key' Stars Gene Kelly Hollywood Players' Show

made such a tremendous hit with movie audiences that second-time will be the vehicle for Gene Kelly, sensation and dramatic star, in his first appearance on the "Hollywood Players," Tuesday over CBS at 9:30 p. m. It is "The Mystery of the Hammett," written by one of the all-time greats among mystery writers, Dashiell Hammett.

The Kingfish and Sapphire suddenly find themselves with a crowd of people coming over for Thanksgiving dinner, but they haven't a turkey, during the "Amos 'n' Andy" broadcast at 9 p. m. over NBC. Andy has been fortunate enough to win a turkey in a raffle, and the Kingfish uses every trick he knows to try to get it away from Andy.

A private eye turns down a $5,000 offer to bump off a man for his employer, but when the selfsame fellow is "worked over" by still another muscle man, and the boss is found dead, Mike (The Falcon) Waring decides that "Murder Is a Deadly Sin," during the "Adventures of the Falcon," at 8:30 p. m. over Mutual.

Henry J. Taylor, widely-known journalist and economist, heard regularly as a commentator over MBS, will be among the speakers in the first of the new series in which the "American Forum of the Air" will take a telephone poll of listeners' opinion, at 9:30 p. m.

An antagonistic attitude on the part of home town neighbors of a suspected murderer poses new and unusual problems for "Private Detective Michael Shayne" as the Irish sleuth follows a trail of murder and threats of murder on the MBS show at 8 p. m.
