

Dunne and Pidgeon To Star In 'Together Again' Monday

Irene Dunne and Walter Pidgeon will play the leading roles in the Radio theatre's dramatization of the film comedy, "Together Again" at 9 p. m. Monday over CBS.

The story tells the hilarious tale of the young attractive lady mayor of a small New England town, the widow of its former mayor, who goes to New York to commission a sculptor to remodel a statue of her late husband. While in the city, she visits a night club with the sculptor, is mistaken for a strip tease dancer and ends up in jail.

Gregory Hood's friend, Sandy, is the guest of honor at a party which leads to an entry in "The Case Book of Gregory Hood," at 8:30 p. m. over MBS. The case involves a girl who failed to double cross a killer, and a botanical specimen called "The Jade Tree."

Bob Hawk sends jokes over the airwaves during his comedy quiz, at 7:30 p. m. over CBS.

A guilt-crazed lunatic is chief character in "The Invisible Demon" on the "Inner Sanctum" murder mystery show at 8 p. m. over CBS.

Joan Fontaine, David Niven and Nigel Bruce will be co-starred on the Screen Guild Players' show in "The Last of Mrs. Cheney" at 10 p. m. over CBS.
