

Henry and Homer Go Formal On Thursday Comedy Show

Henry Aldrich and his pal, Homer, put on their finest feathers for a formal pheasant dinner during "The Aldrich Family" comedy broadcast at 8 p. m. over NBC.

A gift of a brace of pheasants to the Aldrich family provides a happy provocation for a formal birthday dinner in honor of Henry's girl friend, Kathleen Anderson.

Dorothy Kirsten, noted Metropolitan lyric soprano, returns for an encore performance, and Robert Weede, Met baritone, makes his initial appearance on the present series of "Treasure Hour of Song" at 9:30 p. m. over MBS.

To impress Vocalist Marilyn Maxwell, Lou Costello volunteers to ride an experimental rocket to the moon during the "Abbott and Costello" comedy broadcast at 10 p. m. over NBC. He is given a big send off by his pal, Abbott, and then the fun begins.

their way thru a vignette spot all about a couple who sign several dealers' lists for a new radio—and then get them all.

"Gal in Calico" and "For Sentimental Reasons" are the two songs which Dennis Day will sing on his NBC comedy program, "A Day in the Life of Dennis Day," at 7:30 p. m. over NBC.

In addition to making plans for moving his show to its new Wednesday night spot starting Christmas Day, Dennis finds his social calendar filled to overflowing with the approach of the holiday season.
