Charlie McCarthy and Mortimer Snerd in "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," at 10 p. m. over CBS.

It will be a repeat performance in response to public demand, since Bergen did the same show for the Guild two seasons ago. He will again attempt to tell the beloved and familiar story to a very unwilling and very sarcastic McCarthy. Bergen fancies himself in the role of the dashing young prince, and the vision of his appearance in purple tights on a white charger throws Charlie into hysterics.

A crippled little girl hears the story of the origin of St. Nicholas and learns how Christmas is observed in other parts of the world in a pre-holiday adventure from "The Casebook of Gregory Hood" at 8:30 p. m. over MBS.

A woman with a premonition of evil and a man who scoffs at her fears are the chief players in "The Lonely Room," an eerie riverfront chiller on "Inner Sanctum" at 8 p. m. over CBS.

Spottsmen, hunters and lovers of the great outdoors will receive timely tips, expert advice and an opportunity to win valuable prizes when the popular "Fishing and Hunting Club of the Air" makes its debut over MBS in a new series of broadcasts at 10 p. m. Monday.
