

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 9:00 a. m.—W-G-N—Youth Looks Up Visits Our Lady of Sorrows religion school.
- 10:30—W-G-N—Northwestern Reviewing Stand: "Why the Talk about Depression?"
- 12:30 p. m.—WMAQ—University of Chicago Round Table: "Are We Educating for Democracy in Germany?": Speakers: Earl McGrath, T. V. Smith, and Charles Merriam.
- 1:00—W-G-N—Citizens of Tomorrow salute Riverside-Brookfield High school. Program includes a talk by Phillip Maxwell on "High School Strikes."
- 1:45—W-G-N—Distinguished Guest Hour: Rep. Judd [R., Minn.] discusses "Significance in America of Events in Asia."
- 6:00—W-G-N, WGNB—Your Right to Say It: Norman Thomas and Forney Johnston debate: "Should the Coal Mines Be Nationalized?"

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 11:00 a. m.—W-G-N—Uncle Harold Isbell reads The Chicago Tribune Comics.
- 12:30 p. m.—W-G-N—Juvenile Jury: A panel of youngsters discusses problems submitted by contemporaries.
- 1:30—WMAQ—Harvest of Stars, with James Melton and Genevieve Rowe.
- 2:30—W-G-N—Mr. and Mrs., with Two Ton Baker as M. C.
- 3:00—WMAQ—Quiz Kids: Joel Kupperman, Naomi Cook, Lonny Lunde, Patrick Conlon, and Richard Weixler.
- 4:30—WENR—Counter-Spy: "The Case of the Neurologist."
- 5:00—WENR—Stump the Authors: Five minute ad-lib narrations.
- 5:30—WBBM—Kate Smith song and variety show.
- 6:00—WMAQ—Jack Benny, with Mary Livingstone and Rochester.
- 7:00—WMAQ—Charlie McCarthy, with Charles Boyer as his guest.
- 7:30—WMAQ—Fred Allen welcomes Doc Rockwell, comedian, as a guest.
- 8:00—W-G-N—Exploring the Unknown, with Janet Blair in "Big Top."
- 8:00—WBBM—Hildegard in musical selections and variety.
- 8:30—W-G-N—Double or Nothing, quiz, with Todd Russell, M. C.
- 9:00—WMAQ—Don Ameche show, with Danny Thomas and Frances Langford.
- 9:00—WENR—Theater Guild: Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne in "The Great Adventure."

MUSIC

- 2:00 p. m.—WBBM—New York Philharmonic, with Jacques Thibaud, as soloist offers Lalo's "Symphonie Espagnole." Orchestra, under baton of Leopold Stokowski, offers Hindemith's First Symphony, Vittoria's "Jesu Dulcis Memoria," and the Overture to Mozart's "Don Giovanni."
- 4:00—WMAQ—NBC Symphony, directed by Fritz Reiner, presents Mozart's "The Impresario," Brahms' "Fourth Symphony in E minor," and Strauss' "Vienna Life."
- 4:30—WBBM—Hoagy Carmichael reviews song hits of the past.
- 7:00—WLS—Paul Whiteman show, with Robert Merrill as guest.
- 8:30—WMAQ—American Album of Familiar Music, with Donald Dame, Margaret Daum, and Evelyn MacGregor.
- 9:30—W-G-N—Wayne King show, with Larry Douglas and Nancy Evans.