

Tonight's Aces

MAUREEN O'HARA

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, JR.

WBBM at 9:15

Discussion

6 p. m. — Our Foreign Policy (WMAQ): "World Trade or World War?" William B. Clayton, undersecretary of state for economic affairs; Sen. H. Alexander Smith, of senate foreign relations committee . . . It's Your Business (WENR): "Human Relations," interview with Earl Bunting, president-elect, National Association of Manufacturers.

Sports

8 p. m. — All-Navy Basketball Tournament (WIND): final game.

10:15 p. m.—Boxing (WIBA): results of NCAA tournament bouts.

11 p. m. — Banker's Mile (WBBM): annual track event at Chicago Stadium.

Quiz

7 p. m. — Twenty Questions (WGN): guest, Robert Merrill, opera tenor.

Variety

6:30 p. m. — Vaughn Monroe (WBBM): guest, Joe Besser, comedian; "Seems to Be Spring," "The Girl That I Marry," "April Showers," "I'll Close My Eyes. . . East by East" (WIBA): Junior Showmen present "Oh, Say, Can You Sing," by Spranger Barry, with Diane Nelson, Dick Wood, June Millar, Janet Dockstader, George Zinos and Jane Cooper; Ken Sachtjen, piano solo, "In a Monastery Garden;" Beth Mitchell and Connie Oliver, flute duet, "Two Little Bullfinches."

9:30 p. m. —Grand Old Opry (WIBA): "Rainbow at Midnight," "John Henry," "Bicycle Built for Two," "Bile Them Cabbage Down."

Music

6:15 p. m. — Jean Sablon (WBBM): "Tell Him That I Love Him," "I Want to Thank Your Folks," "Tea for Two."

7:30 p. m. —Sound Off (WGN): with Nan Wynne as guest vocalist; "Someone to Watch Over Me," "Ain't No Hurry, Baby."

8 p. m. — Hit Parade (WBBM): with Andrews Sisters, and Beryl Davis, English singer.

9 p. m. — Chicago Theater of the Air (WGN): "Iolanthe," starring Ruth Slater, contralto.

9:45 p. m. — Wayne King (WBBM): "I'll See You In My Dreams," "Isle of Golden Dreams," "September Song," "Orchids in the Moonlight."

Drama

6:30 p. m. — Curtain Time (WMAQ): "Lightning Strikes Twice."

7 p. m.—Life of Riley (WIBA): Riley decides to be more polite to his wife.

7:30 p. m. — I Deal in Crime (WCFL): an unsuspecting salesman becomes involved in a drug smuggling racket.

8:30 p. m. — Family Theater (WGN): James Gleason, Lee Bowman, "A Bunch of Keys."

9:15 p. m. — This Is Hollywood (WBBM): Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Maureen O'Hara in "Sinbad the Sailor."