

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 9:15 a. m.—WMAQ—John L. Lewis speaks during mine safety hearing.
- 10:15—W-G-N—June Baker interviews Capt. Gert S. Meldell, president of the Scandinavian air line system.
- 2:00 p. m.—W-G-N—Meet the Stars: Tommy Bartlett interviews Zero Mostel.
- 7:30—WLS. WENR—America's Town Meeting: "Do We Really Elect Our Own President?" Speakers: Roscoe Drummond, Sen. Sparkman [D., Ala.], Sen. Aiken [R., Vt.], and Elmer Davis.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 6:15 p. m.—W-G-N—Telephone Quiz: The answer is S. S. Van Dine.
- 7:00—WBBM—Suspense, starring Kirk Douglas.
- 7:00—WMAQ—The Aldrich Family, with Ezra Stone, Jack Kelk, and Mary Rolfe.
- 7:30—W-G-N—Count of Monte Cristo: "The Affair of the Bloody Scarab."
- 7:30—WMAQ—George Burns and Gracie Allen, with Mel Blanc.
- 7:30—WBBM—The FBI in Peace and War: Episode concerning the nocturnal adventures of a jailed safe cracker.
- 8:00—WMAQ—Eddie Foy and Eddy Duchin welcome Cedric Hardwicke as a guest.
- 8:30—WENR—Those Sensational Years: Story of Bryan Untfledt, boy hero who saved the lives of 18 school children trapped in a snowbound bus.
- 9:00—WBBM—Radio Reader's Digest: "Portrait of an American."
- 9:30—W-G-N—Crime Files of Flamond: "The Case of the Resentful Roommate."
- 9:30—WMAQ—Eddie Cantor greets Dennis Day as a guest.
- 9:30—WBBM—The Man Called X, starring Herbert Marshall.

MUSIC

- Noon—WAAF—Symphonic Hour: Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel" Suite.
- 8:00 p. m.—WBBM—Dick Haymes show, with Helen Forrest.
- 8:30—W-G-N—Treasure Hour of Song, with Rise Stevens and Thomas Hayward as soloists.
- 9:15—WIND—Symphonic Hour: All-request program.
- 10:00—WMAQ—Supper Club: Jo Stafford acts as hostess to Keenan Wynn.

Jean Mowry, who will be heard in "The Case of the Resentful Roommate" on Crime Files of Flamond over W-G-N at 9:30 to-night.