Surest Sign of Summer, Circus Posters Appear Today

MARION KNOWLTON ON AND 'BLANCHE'

The surest sign of summer appeared in Madison today—circus posters.

Advance men for the Cole Brothers Combined circus, one of the largest in the world, were busy all day letting Madison know that the show will be here July 11, to give two performances.

The Cole show will christen a new showgrounds, setting up its new flame-proofed, apple-green big top at the junction of Highways 19 and 51 on E. Washington ave.

Nearly 400 performers will appear in performances at 2:15 and 8 p. m. Among the stars will be the Cristiani family of bareback riders; Hubert Castle, tight-wire artist; the Great Davisos and the Dei Murls, high-perch performers; Otto Greibling and his host of clowns, and Ruth Nelson, rider.

A herd of elephants, dozens of performing horses, and a huge menagerie are among the other attractions. Doors to the menagerie will open an hour before show time.
