

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 10:00 a. m.—W-G-N—June Baker interviews Willard Motley, author of "Knock on Any Door."
- 1:25 p. m.—WIND—Baseball: Cubs vs. New York Giants.
- 2:30—W-G-N—Constitution day. Speakers: Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor and publisher of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, and Gov. Green.
- 4:45—W-G-N—Freedom Train: Description of train's stop in Philadelphia, first city to be visited in a tour to exhibit important historical documents.
- 8:30—W-G-N—Who Shall Live? Special program marking the Jewish holiday, Rosh Hashanah, starring Ralph Bellamy.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 10:30 a. m.—WCFL—Talking with Toni. Guest: Marcia Winn, conductor of The Chicago Tribune's Front Views and Profiles column.
- 6:15 p. m.—W-G-N—Telephone Quiz. The answer is Victor Herbert.
- 7:00—WMAQ—Dennis Day show, with Barbara Ellers, Bea Bendaret, and Dink Trout.
- 7:00—W-G-N—Crime Club: "A Frame for Murder."
- 7:30—W-G-N—Quiet Please, presents story titled "The Big Box."
- 7:30—WMAQ—The Great Gildersleeve, with Harold Peary and Walter Tetley.
- 7:30—WBBM—Dr. Christian presents "The Norton Nose," story of a plastic surgeon.
- 8:00—WMAQ—Tex and Jinx entertain Ethel Waters, Irving Berlin and John Guther.
- 8:30—WMAQ—Mr. District Attorney: "The Case of Not Quite a Murderer."
- 9:00—WMAQ—The Big Story, drama, with Berry Kroeger, narrator.
- 9:30—W-G-N—Ronald Colman presents "The Debt Collector."
- 9:30—WENR—Henry Morgan offers more wit and satire.

MUSIC

- 8:00 p. m.—WCFL—Chicago Symphony orchestra.
- 8:30—WGNE—Opportunity Time, with Valerie Wennerstrom, mezzo-soprano.
- 8:30—WBBM—Meredith Willson show, with Ben Gage, baritone.
- 9:00—WGNE—Symphony Hour: Holst's "The Planets."
- 10:00—Supper Club, with Perry Como, baritone.