

Five New Shows, Football on Air

With the football season arriving this week, radio's Saturday schedule undergoes several changes. Three new programs make their debut during the week, and two old favorites return:

Tuesday

THE ZANE GREY SHOW, adaptations of 63 published and 47 unpublished works by the prolific writer of western stories, begins over WICC-MBS at 9:30 p.m. Vic Perrin stars as the hero, Tex Thorne.

Wednesday

FRANK MORGAN with his tall tales, Frances Langford with his songs, Don Ameche in romantic comedy sketches, and guest-stars previewing their new records begin over WCBS at 9 p.m. Carmen Dragon conducts the orchestra.

Thursday

"WATERFRONT WAYSIDE," based on stories told to a young author seeking material for a book at a waterfront inn, begins over WICC-MBS at 8 p.m. Don Becker is the author.

EDDIE CANTOR returns to WNBC at 10:30. with Arnold Stang, comic; Cece Blake, 18-year-old songstress; Bert "Mad Russian" Gordon, and "Cookie" Fairchild's music.

Friday

"INFORMATION PLEASE" returns via WICC-MBS at 9:30 p.m., with Clifton Fadiman as quizmaster; John Kieran and Franklin P. Adams on the experts' panel, with Fred Allen and Robert Montgomery as guests.

Saturday

FOOTBALL GAMES: The following broadcasts are scheduled—

Army vs. Villanova, WHN-MBS at 1:45 p.m.

Yale vs. Kings Point, WNHC at 2 p.m.

Holy Cross vs. Dartmouth, WOR at 2:15.

Georgia vs. North Carolina, WNAB-ABC at 3; WCBS at 3:15.

Minnesota vs. Washington, WNBC at 3:45.

PROGRAM NOTES

The Rev. Nils H. Janson of Wesley Methodist church speaks on WNAB's "Morning Devotions" Monday through Wednesday at 7:45 a.m., with the Rev. Eric C. A. Linder of the Swedish Congregational church taking over Thursday through Saturday. . . . Allen Prescott subs for vacationing Don McNeill on the WNAB-ABC Breakfast Club for three days starting tomorrow at 9 a.m. . . . Mrs. John Davis Lodge, wife of the Congressman, and Doris Hoskins, ABC London secretary, are Nancy Craig's guests tomorrow at 12:35 p.m. . . . "Hop Harrigan" moves ahead to 5 p.m. on WOR as "Captain Midnight" returns via WICC-MBS tomorrow at 5:30.

Henry Morgenthau, Jr., speaks for the United Jewish Appeal over WCBS tomorrow at 6:15 p.m. . . . "Books on Trial", over WHN tomorrow at 8 p.m. spotlights Faith Baldwin's "Give Love the Air" with Ed Fitzgerald as prosecutor and his wife Pegeen as defense attorney. . . David Lilienthal, chairman of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, speaks from Crawfordsville, Ind., over WCBS tomorrow at 11 p.m. . . "Should We Accept the New Fashions for Women?" will be the Town Meeting topic on WNAB-ABC Tuesday night at 8:30, with Constance Bennett and Gilbert Adrian taking the affirmative; Fira Beneson (Countess Ilinska) and Mrs. Howard Hawks, the negative. . . . Bob Burns may return with a five-a-week 15 minute show. . . For whatever it means: Winchell had the highest Hooperating in the Sept. 15 report, with "Mr. D.A." second, Radio Theater 3d, Charlie McCarthy 4th and Hit Parade 5th. . . Jack Paar's wife is recovering from a major operation