

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

5, KNX—"Wolf With Sheepskin" is the comedy dramatization on the "First Nighter" show tonight.

6:30, KECA—Business partners trying to cheat each other and then a murder comprise the story of "Mr. Malone."

7, KFI—Come on chillin' . . . let's dance . . . It's the old professor Kay Kyser and his Musical College.

8, KECA—For the kids from 8 to 10, the masked horseman and his man, Tonto, please listeners with "Lone Ranger."

9, KECA—"Gangbusters" tonight tell of the return from "retirement" of George (Bugs) Moran in Chicago.

10:30, KNX—It's absolutely crazy . . . satire in a zany vein . . . with bullfrog-voiced Abe Burrows and his mad songs.

TOMORROW

11 a. m., KFI—A 100th year celebration, so the "Harvest of Stars" program takes a full hour today.

12 noon, KNX—One and one-half hours of good music by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

1:45, KNPC—Rams vs. Cardinals football game.

2, KNX—Secretary of the Interior Julius A. Krug is the guest speaker on the "Family Hour."

4, KFI—Presenting Jack (Locksmith) Benny. When he was born his father took one look at him and made a bolt for the door!

5, KFI—Opera Star Lily Pons will be the guest vocalovely when she visits "the great maestro," Charlie McCarthy.

6, KIJ—Parkyakarkus, an outstanding comedian, returns to the air tonight with the premiere of "Meet Me at Parky's."

8:30, KECA—Gertrude Lawrence will recreate the Broadway role for which she was widely acclaimed when "Theater Guild" presents "Lady in the Dark."

8:30, KNX—Dagwood inherits the Dithers Co. tonight . . . but not for long.

9, KECA—This is a fast moving . . . fast talking, cleverly presented online story in "Pat Novak for Hire."

TELEVISION