

TONIGHT—

8:00, KNN—It's "Cargo on the Highway" an original capsule operetta, when Dick Inymes, Lina Roman and the chorus salute the nation's truck drivers tonight.

7:00, KFIJ—The marriage-making member of the McGee household, Elmer himself, decides to solve a broken-hearted secretary's romance, as he and Molly appear as guest tonight on "Family Theater."

7:00, KNN—Claude Rains guests tonight on "Radio Digest."

8:30, KFIJ—There is murder in paradise when the "Scarlet Queen" puts in at the Island of Karakelong in the South Pacific.

9:00, KECA—Note that this is a new time for this dramatization of the lives of our Presidents, on "Mr. President."

9:00, KFI—A trio to end all trios . . . the three G's—Grant, George and Genevieve—turnish a highspot on Burns & Allen.

9:00, KNN—An actress plots murder . . . the play . . . "Subway," the show . . . "Suspense," the star . . . June Havoc. The entire action of this show, is played against the screaming noise of a New York subway at full speed.

TELEVISION—