

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

8:00, KFI—Art Linkletter will glorify the candied yam on "People Are Funny" when the show originates from the Sweet Potato Festival in Louisiana.

8:30, KFI—With songs by Bob Hannon, music by the Amsterdam Chorus and Abe Lyman's Orchestra, "Waltz Time" gets under way.

7:00, KIJ—Two political newsmakers will guest on tonight's presentation of "Information Please." The first is Harold E. Stassen . . . the second is Sen. J. Howard McGrath.

7:00, KECA—For the sports fan, we have the 10-round bout between Sonny Horne and Charlie Zivic.

8:00, KECA—"The Fat Man" finds excitement with a convict . . . his kang and his moll.

TONMORROW—Football Specials

10:15 a. m., KECA—Michigan-Indiana.

11:15 a. m., KFI—Army-Notre Dame.

12:00 noon, KNX—Army-Notre Dame.

2:00 p. m., KIJ—U. S. C.-Stanford.

2:00 p. m., KMPC—O. S. C.-U. C. L. A.

TELEVISION