

DIAL-LITES

TODAY

12:30, KHIJ—The "Juvenile Jury" panel will have as guest problem teller, Bobby McNeil, son of the "Breakfast Club's" Don McNeil.

2:00, KFI—The first hour-long radio presentation of "Carmen Jones," the all-Negro version of the Dixieland classic "Carmen," is presented today.

4:00, KFI—Jack Benny has to renew his driver's license . . . with the help of "Mr. Kitzel" his troubles grow!

6:00, KHIJ—Parkynkarkum tries to help the local chamber of commerce raise money. He succeeds . . . but it is expensive to him.

6:30, KECA—Joan Fontaine will be starred in the "Theater Guild" presentation of the tragic drama, "The Shining Hour."

7:00, KPNX—"Christopher Wells," the truth-defending news columnist, braves new dangers, and comes up with a big story.

8:30, KPNX—Blondie has troubles with advice to the loyalism columnist . . . because, Dagwood gets mixed up in it.

9:00, KECA—This show, "Pat Novak for Hire," is written and produced in San Francisco . . . uses authentic street names, and is chock-full of fact dialogue.

9:30, KHIJ—Tonight the "Chicago Theater of the Air" presents that musical classic, "Rigoletto."

TELEVISION