

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

8:30—KFI—More in the life of Judy and her boy friend, Oogie, during this airing of "A Date With Judy."

8:30—KECA—From the B. H. R. in the Temple in Pittsburgh the Boston Symphony Orchestra schedules an all-British program.

8:30—KNX—For its full hour drama, under the new policy of presenting fresh material off the beaten path, "Studio One" will give the radio version of a modern novel.

8:30—KNX—Their co-operative observance of moonless Tuesday leads to a meaty problem for CBS, "Mr. and Mrs. North," when they are served mysterious doodles with their hoodles in a story called "Moonless on Tuesday."

9:00—KNX—The story of a missing key witness, who has been held prisoner, is uncovered by Steve Wilson and his lovely assistant, Lorelei, just before the Illustrated Daily Press goes to press on the "Big Town" broadcast.
