

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—(Wednesday, Dec. 3.)

4:00 KFI—According to last-minute info, that romantic French emancer (OO-LA-LA) Jean Sablon, will give some love lessons to "Archie" on "Duffy's Tavern" tonight.

6:30 KECA—What really goes on at the American family breakfast table? Vox Poppers Warren Hull and Parks Johnson will attempt to find out tonight.

7:30 KFI—Charles Boyer, "Casanova of the Casbah," will pay a visit tonight to Mr. James Durante, Esq., of Third Avenue. And by the way . . . we announced a coming back party last week for Peggy Lee, but her Dr. said no until tonight. She is expected back during this broadcast.

7:30 KNX—"The Professor and the Fox" will be the story told tonight by the earle-voiced "Whistler."

8:00 KECA—It's still fun and comedy concerning a newspaper tonight for Abbott and Costello.

8:30 KNX—Determined to make a career for her daughter, an ambitious, doting mother swoops down on Hollywood. The daughter's career lands in the scrap pile, but the mother gets a contract . . . this is heard during the airing by "Dr. Christian."

9:00 KECA—Bing dedicates a current hit song to his mother, and Jolson again "bain the breeze" with the groaner during Bing's show, aired by platter.

THE REVISON