

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—Saturday, December 6.

5:00—KNX—An amusing story about a horse ready for the glue factory, and it entering the Derby, is told tonight on "First Nighter."

6:00—KECA—How cholera, one of the deadliest diseases known to man, was combatted by the Navy, will be the presentation of "Exploring the Unknown."

6:00—KNX—Garry (the hair-cut) Moore will again be guesting with Joan Davis tonight.

7:30—KHJ—Ham Fisher, creator of "Top Palooka," comic strip, makes a return visit, and tries to uphold the dignity of the male, on "Leave It to the Girls."

8:30—KFI—A portion of this show has the nation talking double talk. . . Truth or Consequences' "Miss Hush!" Well, your editor here thinks that it's Martha Graham, well known dancer. Let's see . . . huh? The clues work out!

9:30—KECA—Here is "Murder and Mr. Malone" for the crime drama enthusiast.

TELEVISION—

KTLA—Chan. 5 WEXAQ—Chan. 2
(Tonight, Dec. 6) (Tonight, Dec. 6)

7:00—Uncle Phil. SILENT

7:30—You Be Sorry.

8:00—Football scores

8:15—Short subject.

8:30—Ice hockey.

TOMORROW—Sunday, December 7.

12:00 Noon — KNX — Noted Cellist Raya Garbousova plays the prize-winning Concerto for Cello with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. (1½-hour program.)

2:00 — KECA — A pretty woman's back is no respectable lodging place for a knife . . . so finds out "Bill Lance."

4:00—KFI—There's fun with Benny when he decides to become a football star. More fun, too, with his M-M-M-M-M (quartet).

5:00—KECA—Commemorating Pearl Harbor Day, Dr. Krueger of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will present Beethoven's Symphony No. 5 in C-Minor."

6:30—KECA—"Theater Guild" presents Gene Kelly in "The Wisdom Tooth," a tender and rueful comedy.

7:30—KFI—Horace Heidt makes another comeback after a three-year retirement, with the debut of his new show tonight.

8:00—KHJ—Al Capp, creator of the comic strip "Li'l Abner," will join the panel of experts on the popular radio version of the parlor game "20 Questions."

8:00—KNX—Ken (Man Called X) Thurston has suspicions aroused when $1,000,000 worth of canned beef is condemned by a foreign agency.

8:30—KFI—For those who appreciate good music . . . we recommend the Standard Hour.

9:30—KHJ—With good music still running through our veins . . . now it's "Chicago Theater of the Air."

TELEVISION