

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT (Dec. 10)

6:00 KFI—That beautiful and shapely swimming star and film actress, Esther Williams, will be called upon to give "Archie" swimming lessons, just in case he fails in his attempt to go over Niagara Falls in a barrel. The show is "Duffy's Tavern."

6:30 KECA—The page boys of the Senate and House of Representatives, ranging in age from 14 to 17, will tell all about their jobs tonight on "Vox Pop."

7:00 KNX—Simon Templar ("The Saint"), gets the wrong car and thereby is well mixed up in a dangerous smuggling plot.

8:00 KECA—Lou Costello has to stop spending a hundred bucks on each date (50 bucks on himself and one buck on the girl), and Bud Abbott tells him so.

8:30 KNX—"Dr. Christian" brings two European refugees together in the story "Love's Old Sweet Dream" tonight.

9:00 KGER-KECA—Walter O'Keefe and Bing Crosby talk over the days before sponsors repaid the wolves at the doors . . . and neither of them had anything but a song for the landlady.

9:00 KFI—More adventures in "A Day in the Life of Dennis Day."

9:30 KFI—Blackmail, double-cross and murder enter into the story tonight on "Mr. District Attorney."
