

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—Dec. 11.

6:00—KNX—Little' Martha Tilton joins the "Dick Haymes Show" tonight as featured feminine vocalist.

7:00—KNX—Wayne Morris plays an American parachutist befriended by an Italian farmer behind enemy lines tonight, when "Radio Digest" presents the drama "Giuseppe and the Sergeant."

7:00—KHJ—Screen comedian Frank Mollugh will be starred as a department store manager with pre-Christmas headaches, as the drama "Substitute Santa" is aired by Family Theatre.

8:30—KNX—"Mr. Keen" gets "hot on the trail" of a mysterious person responsible for many puzzling and carefully planned crimes.

9:00—KECA—"Mr. President" played by screen actor Edward Arnold gets himself into heated opposition troubles from both Senatorial groups. In fact, almost gets assassinated, during this drama.

9:00—KNX—There's hidden skeletons in closets, and a new blackmail racket for the G-men to investigate tonight during the "FBI in Peace and War" broadcast.

9:45—KECA—Special talk tonight by Rep. Carl Mundt (R.-S. Dak.) who will speak on "A Consistent Foreign Policy."

TELEVISION—