

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT (Dec. 13)

5:00—KNIS—Here is a delightful comedy presented on the "First Nighter" show, titled "I'll Never Leave You, Question Mark."

7:30—KECA—Ross Dolan, the detective, has a friend . . . a lady psychiatrist . . . who calls upon him for protection during tonight's story.

8:30—KFI—Ralph Edwards, of "Truth or Consequences" will present tonight the winner of the "Miss Hush" contest, to present the awards totalling nearly $23,500.00.

8:30—KECA—More adventures in the life of Sergeant Preston of the Northwest Mounted Police, tonight on "Challenge of the Yukon."

9:00—KECA—Work performed by the United States Secret Service will be dramatized tonight on the "Gangbusters" program.

10:30—KNX—Abe Burrows, a former boy soprano whose voice changed nobody knows into what) hits the air again tonight with more corn!

TELEVISION

| | |
|---------------------|---------------------------|
| KTLA—Chan. 5 | Scores |
| (Tonight, Dec. 13) | 8:15—Short Subject |
| 7:00—Uncle Phil | 7:30—You Be WAXAO—Chan. 2 |
| 7:30—You Be Sorry | (Tonight, Dec. 13) |
| 8:00—Foot on a Hill | SILENT |

TOMORROW (Sunday, Dec. 14)

2:00—KFI—Edna Ferber's novel, "Cimarron" will be presented with a special radio adaptation today at this time.

2:00—KNX—Wallace K. Harrison, prominent architect, will be the guest today on the "Family Hour" which stars Riso Stevens.

3:00—KFI—Dad Webster succumbs to an electric train when he goes Christmas shopping. Lovely Jane Webb plays the feminine lead.

4:30—KFI—It's more family mix-ups and troubles with Frankie, when Phil Harris & Alice Faye air today.

5:00—KFI—Gary Cooper will be the special guest today, on the "Charles McCarty" program.

8:30—KECA—The "Theatre Guild" presents tonight Helen Hayes, starring in the Emyln Williams' drama, "The Corn Is Green."

7:00—KNX—Christopher Walk is forced by gun-point into a deserted insane asylum, after his plane is grounded. The story is titled "Forced Landing."

8:30—KECA—Nothing to say here except . . . time for the "Green Hornet" thriller.

8:30—KFI—The fairyland opera complete with an evil stepmother, "Hansel and Gretel" has been adapted for radio presentation and is broadcast tonight by the "Chicago Theatre of the Air."