

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—(Dec. 17)

6:00-KFI—Finnegan brings his entire family to display their mental prowess at "Duffy's" tonight. Finnegan's kid Wilfred returns home for Christmas from college to announce that there is no Santa Claus.

6:30-KECA—The first war bride-room-to-be ever to set foot on American soil will be interviewed tonight by "Vox Pop."

7:00-KNX—"The Saint" is trapped tonight in an old silver mine shaft aboard a cable car, with a dangerous gunman.

8:00-KECA—Christmas shopping plagues the mind of Lou Costello, and Bud Abbott's suggestions don't seem to help matters at all.

8:30-KNX—"Dr. Christian" runs into a saloon fight and hidden romance tonight in the story, "There's No Accounting for Taste."

9:00-KGER, K X C A—Derby-hatted Joe Frisco, N. Y. wisecracker, you-lovely Ilene Woods, and Rudolph Schmoehopper, a celebrity known only to Bing Crosby, will be guests tonight of Der Bingle. What Schmoehopper will do, if anything, is a secret known only to Bing.

9:00-KNX—Evelyn MacGregor and Hob Hannon offer a cheerful program of Christmas numbers tonight on "American Melody Hour."

9:30-KFI—The crude shakedown scheme backfires on a tough moll, when "Mr. D. A." again cuts loose on crime.

9:30-KECA—Radio's bad boy, Henry Morgan, with a few weeks' extension added to his contract, continues to "take pokes" despite the protests of his sponsors.