

DIAL-LITES

TODAY

2:00—KFI—“The Man Who Played God” will be the “Ford Theater” presentation, starring Buster Ortega and Ann Seymour.

2:30 — KHJ — The underprivileged children between the ages of 7 and 12 will get a pre-Christmas treat when they are the guest-contestants on Mutual Don Lee's “Quick as a Flash.”

2:30 — KECA — David Harding the “Counterspy,” uncovers a realty racket preying on federal housing projects when “The Case of the Land Sharks” is presented on “Counterspy.”

4:00—KFI—The one and only has more than his share of trouble when he goes Christmas shopping. Don't miss Jack Benny.

4:30—KFI—Jackson Benny (Jack Benny) will be the guest star that Phil Harris and Alice Faye present on their Christmas show, “The Fitch Bandwagon.”

6:00—KHJ—A swelled head makes for a solitary Christmas for Parkyarkus when he is voted the most popular man in town. Lots of laughs and common sense in “Meet Me at Parky's.”

8:30—KHJ—Here's one that will keep you in stitches from start to finish. Jim Backus, star of many programs, is featured now on this, his own show, entitled “The Jim Backus Show.”

8:30—KFI—Henry Fonda will introduce Jean Loring to you, the radio audience, on “Hollywood Star Preview.” The story is “Christmas in Reno.”

8:00—KHJ—Santa Claus will take time out from his busy Yuletide schedule to play on Mutual Don Lee's radio version of the old parlor game, “Twenty Questions.”